Few people know the real reason of the delay in bringing off the recent set-to between Dempsey and McCaffrey. If Dempsey had not won easily he would be severely blamed for his carclessness about training. He certainly held Mac very cheap. Only three nights before the "go" he is said to have been up almost all night at a ball and the might before the fight he got almost no sleep because of his child's illness. Dempsey's backers tried to get him over early table house near the Pavonia Rink, where the mill was to take place, so that he could get a good rest; but the champion's journey from Williamsburg to Jersey City was delayed by the ice in the two rivers. When he got to the house in which he was to sleep until called to box, such a commotion was raised Few people know the real reason of the called to box, such a commotion was raised that the proprietor refused to allow the pugilist and his friends to enter. Some time was consumed in hunting up another place, and Dempsey asked for as much time to sleep as An officer in charge said to 11 o'clock, in reply to a question writer at 11 o'clock, in reply to a question if the lights would be put out at midnight: "No: not till 12 o'clock on Saturday night." INVESTIGATING WARDEN WALSH. Commissioner Porter Materially Assisted by

"The World" in the Work.

Commissioner Porter, of the Department of Charities and Corrections, said this morning that as Sunday was a partial holiday for him he had not read the exposure in THE WORLD of Warden Walsh's management of the Fomlis. He intended to examine it carefully, however, at the carliest opportunity, and he remarked that Tur World was assisting the department materially in this matter.

An investigation of Warden Walsh's management of the City Prison had been instituted, but Commissioner Porter refused to state its nature or the results already reached.

What is Scrofula

It is that impurity in the blood, which, accumulating the glands of the neck, produces unsightly lumps of swellings; which causes painful running sores on the trms, legs or fest; which develops ulcers in the eyes, ears or nose, often causing blindness or deafness; which is the origin of pimples, cancerons growths, or the many ther manifestations usually ascribed to "humors;" which, fastening upon the lungs, causes consumption and death. Being the most ancient, it is the most gen-eral of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are ntirely free from it.

How can it be cured? By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, by the remarkable cures it has accomplished, often when other medicines have failed, has proven itself to be a petent and peculiar medicine for this disease. Some of these cures are really wonderful. If you suffer from screfula in any of its forms be sure to try
